

Article I: Judicial Authority

1. The vice president and dean of student affairs in New York or his or her appointed conduct officers at each campus location have judicial authority to assess penalties and sanctions found in Article III, Section B in accordance with this code.
2. Any member of the CIA community may report violations of the code directly to an appropriate conduct officer at each CIA campus location or through the online reporting form. Violations of the code will also be considered when information is provided from one who is not a member of the college community.
3. Appeal: See Article III, Section A (3).

Note: Violations involving harassment, sexual misconduct, or discrimination must follow the process outlined in the Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Discrimination Policy to address, adjudicate, and appeal such violations.
