E-Mail and Student Portal Responsibility

Students are responsible for checking their e-mail accounts and CIA Main Menu (the student portal) on a regular basis. The faculty and administration communicates with the student body through the college-issued e-mail account and CIA Main Menu. Additionally, students may access their grades, class schedules, housing information, billing, and other important information on CIA Main Menu. The college recommends that students check both resources often.