

Exhibition and Showpieces

CIA students frequently prepare food displays and centerpieces to be exhibited at off-campus functions and shows. If students prepare an item for a show, they will create their artwork under the supervision of a CIA instructor. The results are entered as CIA showpieces and may not be used for personal functions.