

Faculty Office Hours

All faculty members hold regularly scheduled office hours to provide students with the opportunity outside of the classrooms or kitchens to discuss any concerns. These office hours are for all CIA students, not just for students in an instructor's class. Many instructors use office hours to talk to students about performance in class, learning strategies, externship possibilities, or career opportunities.