

Room Condition

Students are responsible for the condition of their room and furnishings from the time of check in through the time they vacate the room, check out, and return their key. Students will be required to reimburse the CIA for all damages and/or losses to the room or furnishings above normal wear and tear.

Malicious damage and vandalism may result in the immediate loss of campus housing. Students may not make alterations to their room or furnishings; remove furniture from any room, including lounges and hallways; exchange furniture from one room for furniture in another; remove screens from windows in the residence halls or remove restrictor arms on windows where applicable, as fines will be assessed; use windows as room entrances or exits, except in the case of an emergency; tape, glue, or attach anything to a residence hall window; place anything on exterior window ledges; or place anything between the windows and the screens. Again, students are responsible for the actions of their guests, and students may share responsibility with their roommate for damages.
