

ADWN-502 : Northern Wine Countries of Europe: The Wines of France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and Hungary

This course explores the histories, rise to prominence, and modern changes related to wines from the northern appellations of Europe. In-depth study of the wines of France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and Hungary is the focus of the class, and accompanying analytical tastings of the major appellations enhance the understanding of these important foreign wines. In addition, the course examines the terroirs of the major regions, delves into traditional and contemporary production methods, and analyzes the recent wine labeling changes in the European Union member countries that produce wine.
