

CULA-320 : Formal Restaurant Cooking

Learn to prepare modern and seasonal dishes in a restaurant setting and put previously learned skills into practice. This course will emphasize cooking techniques and ingredients used in contemporary and classical cuisines and cover planning and ordering, station organization, preparation and plating, timing, palate development, and other production realities of a restaurant.

Credits 3