

HMCE-301 : Event Planning I

This course is an introduction to the major concepts and issues of event planning and the specific discipline of culinary tourism as a topic of academic study. The course covers a broad range of topics related to event planning. Students will investigate the conference and meeting industry, its' scope and responsibility, and multidimensional nature.

Credits 3