

LART-260 : Justice, Ethical Leadership & Truth

This course will examine the intersection of leadership and ethics as it relates to the idea of justice in a variety of contexts including, but not limited to, political, social, and economic. Students will examine the ethical dilemmas of leadership and the moral implication of decision-making for both personal integrity and citizenship. The purpose of this course is to make visible the ethical challenges and decisions facing leaders as they decide what is just. Readings that focus on equality, liberty, empathy, and rights will be interrogated throughout the course.
