

MGMT-410 : Leadership and Ethics

This course will examine the intersection of leadership and ethics in business. Students will examine the skills needed for effective leadership, the ethical dilemmas of leadership, the foundation and context of moral choice, the moral implication of decision making, and the impact upon staff morale, personal integrity, and citizenship. The purpose of the course is to develop an understanding of the student's own leadership style and preferences, make visible the ethical challenges and decisions facing leaders, examine the leadership role in sharing the organization's ethical culture, and explore several alternative methods of ethical decision making.
