

MWBM-501C : Capstone Presentation Residency

Over three days of structured Q&A, peer evaluation, discussion and practice, students will hone their skills to prepare for a final presentation of their Playbook project. The students will gather in their communities of practice for peer review and discussion prior to delivering their final Playbook presentation to an audience consisting of MPS faculty, advisors, mentors, CIA partners and guests. In addition, the learners will complete self and peer evaluations on final projects / playbooks as well as on the overall degree program.
